

directly to Illinois, where they were among the early settlers. Dr. Hall died in 1864, after which Mrs. Hall returned to Vermont, where she passed the remainder of her life, except for a few years in Canada, which she spent in the care of her aged parents. Mrs. Hall suffered for two years from blindness and was always more or less of an invalid. She was never able to take an active part in life outside of her home. She took as her guide for life "Christ's Sermon on the Mount." She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. H. H. Fuller, and a brother, Edmund C. Murray of Medford, Wis. The funeral was held at her late home Monday afternoon, the Rev. S. F. Cooley officiating, assisted by the Rev. E. E. Herick, with burial in the village cemetery, where she rests beside her husband.

UNDERHILL.

Henry Moles of Johnson called on friends in town last week—Mr. and Mrs. George Woodruff of Cambridge were guests of Mrs. H. B. Howard last week. Graded school closed Friday for a week's vacation. M. P. Osgood has gone to Townsend to spend Thanksgiving with his parents—Miss Stella Bowman is visiting friends in Johnson this week—Mrs. Charlotte Abbott and son, Edwin, went Tuesday to Belton to spend Thanksgiving. Miss Janet Murdoch was in Burlington Monday to see her father, who is in a hospital—C. E. Ayer and family have moved into N. E. Wright's tenement at Riverside—Miss Helen Sinclair, who is attending school in Poughkeepsie, is at home for the Thanksgiving recess—Edward Humphrey, Edward Macha, E. W. Johns, William Kettle, Rollo Rodgett and John Tatro have been successful in getting deer since the season opened.

MILTON BORO.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. White were in St. Albans Monday—Mr. and Mrs. Ward Richards and family are spending the week in Fairfield—Marion Stanley is home from her school in Fairfax for Thanksgiving—Jane Boyden is visiting her sister, Abba Carr—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bullock and L. J. Lester were in Winoski Sunday.

HUNTINGTON CENTER.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gardner of Plainfield are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gardner—The Baraca Philathea class will meet with Miss Lena Miles Saturday evening—Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Randall visited in Burlington last week—Miss Jane Rink, who has been working in Morrisville the past few months, is now with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rink—The Misses Hazel Brewster, Doris Miles and Ruth Andrews are spending their Thanksgiving vacation with their parents—Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Andrews and family are visiting at John Andrews' and G. F. Wells—Successful deer hunters are P. H. Beane, Parker Beane, Walter Grace, Marble Pierce, Ralph Gorton and Fred Shattuck.

SOUTH BURLINGTON.

The King's Daughters meeting will be postponed two weeks on account of Thanksgiving—E. W. Butler went to Boston last week on business. He was accompanied by Mrs. Butler. They also went to New York city to visit Mrs. Butler's sister a few days before returning home—Osgood Butler of the Burlington high school is at home ill with a hard cold—Homer Taft and sister, Miss Hilary of Sturtevant, and W. C. Livermore's Monday and Tuesday.

ST. GEORGE.

M. W. Hinesdale and son, Clark, were at the Fanny Allen hospital in Winoski Sunday to see his daughter, Miss Nora Hinesdale—Master David Davis has been obliged to leave school on account of poor health—Charles and Ernest Tarrill and son of Grand Isle are on a deer hunting trip—Hinesburg Thursday by the sudden death of her brother, John Harris—Irving Isham is one of the successful deer hunters in town—A flock of wild geese made their appearance here early Monday morning.

CHARLOTTE.

Mrs. Eugene Ashline was called to the home of her parents in Hinesburg Thursday by the death of her brother, John Harris—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dora, Jr., visited their nephew, Fred St. George, in Bristol last week—M. E. Carpenter returned from his hunting trip Saturday, bringing home a fine buck deer—Miss Bessie Dowd is visiting old neighbors on Mutton hill.

RICHMOND.

Miss Harriet of Norfolk, Conn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Shepardson—Mrs. Smith, who has been boarding at Mrs. Junice Berry's for three months, has returned to her home in Burlington—Miss Ruth Hillitt is visiting in Middlebury—C. C. Clark of Randolph was the guest of friends in town Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bashaw have returned from a week's stay in Burlington—Mrs. Laviolette of Woodstock is the guest of friends in town—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edwards of Omaha, Neb., who have been visiting at the home of her uncle, G. A. Edwards, left Sunday morning for New York, where they will spend a few days before returning to their home—The Louise M. Smiley Circle of the Kiwanis chapter will meet at the vestry of the Universalist church December 1st—Mrs. Clara Rhoad is visiting friends in Montpelier—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bessett have returned from a two months' stay in Burlington.

ESSEX JUNCTION.

A son was born Friday to Dr. and Mrs. Harry A. Donahue. Fred Dugue died suddenly in Jeffersonville Sunday at five o'clock. Death was due to acute indigestion and heart failure. He had not been feeling well for a few days, but had not been confined to the bed. Death came while he was sitting in a chair. Mr. Dugue had been working in Jeffersonville most of the summer. Mr. Dugue was born in Essex about 40 years ago and had resided here most of his life. He is survived by three brothers, A. H. Dugue of Worcester, Mass., and Charles and William of this place, and three sisters, Mrs. J. Gaines of Rutland, Vt., Mrs. Clara Golden of Burlington and Mrs. Alex. Laundon of this place.

The twin daughters born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Demag died the same day. Miss Emroy Gates, who has been at home several weeks recovering from an attack of typhoid fever, will return Saturday to Brooklyn, N. Y., where she is taking a course in nursing in the Methodist Episcopal hospital.

Joseph Lawrence of Winoski and Miss Katherine Labounty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Labounty of Lower Pearl street, were married by the Rev. J. B. Poultar at the Church of the Holy Family Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock. They were attended by David Lawrence and Mr. Labounty, their fathers. The bride wore a gown of pink satin, a black velvet hat and carried a rosary. The wedding breakfast was held at the home of the groom in Winoski.

and in the evening a supper was served at the home of the bride. A large number of guests were present. The bride received many presents. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence will reside in Winoski. C. B. McAllister has resigned his position as superintendent of the Central Telephone company. Mr. and Mrs. McAllister are moving from Essex Center to the J. H. Douglas house on Pearl street just vacated by F. E. Hopkins.

HUNTINGTON.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Johns and Mrs. Jennie Johns went to Northfield the last of the week for a winter vacation. They will spend the winter in Northfield, where they will be employed this winter—Mrs. Sarah Sherman and David Tarbox have been spending a few days at Henry Rosa's in Shelburne—School will close Wednesday for the Thanksgiving vacation. The Misses McCarty and O'Brien are not expected to return to school until after the vacation. The high school of Friday did considerable damage throughout town, unroofing buildings, blowing down trees, fences, sheds, etc.

WILLISTON.

David Tarbox and Mrs. Susan Sherman from Hunting were guests of Mrs. Seymour Caswell Sunday—Madam Curtis is very ill at the home of her son, Frank—Mr. and Mrs. Morton Jones were guests of Mr. Worthen in Richmond Sunday—There will be a Thanksgiving service at the Methodist church Wednesday night—Mr. and Mrs. W. Abercrombie have closed their house here for the winter and returned to Worcester, Mass.—Amos Cook and daughter, Kate, will go to Orwell Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Ralph Cook—A. O. Porter is spending a few days with friends in Waterbury Center—George Smale and family, who have been visiting in Canada, have returned home—C. W. Porter, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Goss in Shelburne, has returned—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bonhard entertained guests from out of town Monday—E. E. Metcalf has gone to Chicago to spend the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Stella Brown—There will be a food sale at Mrs. Mary Clark's Saturday afternoon.

The students at the French high school have made what they believe to be a record. During the fall term of 12 weeks, not one pupil was absent, giving an average attendance of 98 per cent. To celebrate the event, they entertained their parents and friends at the school building on the evening previous to Thanksgiving with a party and exercises. Such an achievement should be especially commended, as the girls and boys who attend this school are handicapped in a number of ways, and experienced many difficulties in reaching the goal for which they strove. The school is now celebrating Thanksgiving at her home in Kingston, N. Y.

HINESBURG.

Miss Mildred Parth was given a surprise shower at the home of Mrs. H. D. Weller November 15 by a large party of relatives in view of her approaching marriage to Truman Burritt. Refreshments were served. Mrs. H. D. Weller is preparing to close her home and spend the winter in Washington, D. C., with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Field. The funeral of John G. Harris was held at his late home Friday and interment was made in the Barker cemetery—William and Grant Barker each got a deer Thursday in the town of Worcester.

Turkeys seem to be plentiful and many a noble bird will adorn the Thanksgiving tables in the homes in this town on Thursday—Harrison Chapman of Mechanicville is among the successful hunters having shot a deer Tuesday—The new high school looks well after being painted and the building is being completed—There will be special evangelistic services at the Baptist church every evening beginning Sunday, November 28, and will close Sunday evening, December 12. The Rev. A. V. Allen of Montpelier will be the preacher and soloist. Everyone is cordially invited—Special prayer meetings will be held in the church every Friday and Saturday evening during a week's stay in town. At the Saturday evening prayer meeting an opportunity will be given to those attending to make Mr. Allen's acquaintance. Mr. Allen will also, it is expected, preach at the usual Sunday morning service.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.

The death of Mrs. Adelaide L. Webster Allen, widow of S. S. Allen, which occurred Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, removed one of the oldest and most respected residents of St. Albans. Mrs. Allen was born in Fairfax in 1845, and was therefore 72 years of age. She was a daughter of Theron and Ursula Webster of this place. She was married when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle, N. Y., with a nephew and her summers at her home in this place. She was married to Mr. Allen when she was a child and here she had since made her home. She was married in 1871. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen died in 1902. Mr. Allen died in 1904 and since that time Mrs. Allen had led a very retired life. She had spent her winters in New Rochelle,